ABOUT ELAINE

Raised in a traditional Christian home, Elaine always knew Jesus existed. Yet something was still missing, something lost in translation. Elaine came to realize that 'knowing' was not necessarily equal to 'understanding.' It was then that a passion for finding 'the life' (John 14:6) would ignite within her.

Her book, Love Echoed Back: I Cried Out; He Answered, is an emotional account of how God took one life, filled with fear, pain, and disappointment, and transformed it through His love, mercy, and grace.

Today, Elaine is assisting other women along their journey, helping them to rise up despite their circumstances and become all God has called them to be.

LOVE ECHOED BACK

A large portion of Christians today come to faith, full of excitement and hope, but they then engage in a superficial Christian walk. As time passes, and hard times ensue, they are unable to process what they are going through, and as a result, many ultimately walk away from their faith. Love Echoed Back is a testament to the fact that if Christians will trust in the promises of God, seek a close relationship with Jesus, and do the work of deep self-reflection when difficult times hit, they will discover how to walk in God's will, fulfill the true purpose for their lives, and find the peace and comfort they seek.

WHAT READERS & FOLLOWERS ARE SAYING

Elaine Lankford has captured the essence of prayer in her book Love Echoed Back: I Cried Out; He Answered. Love Echoed Back is perceptive and definitive in its recognition of the asking of and praising of God. Ms. Lankford's personal experiences are representative of issues that many people deal with, and the scriptures she uses are very depictive of how the Bible covers all matters through all time. I have already referenced Love Echoed Back on more than one occasion to calm down, seek a quiet place, and pray.

Occasionally, I get my hands on a book that speaks to me... one that I feel like God had someone else pen, just for me. "Love Echoed Back" is one of those books. If you are a Christian woman who's up on the mountain top, down in the valley, or somewhere in between, Elaine Lankford's writing will hit home. This is a book that I will share with my friends who are going through trials, who need to know they are not alone in their suffering, and who need words of encouragement. Ms. Lankford's writing is beautiful, honest and raw. I recommend this book to ANYONE who needs to know that God listens, He hears, and He will answer.

I was invited to attend your event by a good friend and I'd just like to thank you both so much for having the courage to impact others with your stories. It meant a lot to me and the time spent in prayer and sweet communion with my friends was like a fresh cup of water for my thirsty spirit. It was evident that a lot of time, love, and forethought went into planning this event.

It was our pleasure to have you at our circle meeting last month. The members enjoyed the way you shared your experiences in such an open and honest manner. You answered their questions easily and encouraged participation. You were a pleasure to meet and share time with.
